Subject: ABOL Invites You To Enjoy Your Online Library at Two Locations

Dear Friends of American Buddha:

This is the very first email we're sending it because we are excited about all the good things that have happened for the library. First, we have to celebrate, because one of the out-of-print books in the ABOL archive has just gotten back into print. Thanks to the interest generated through the site, Lester Coleman, the DIA agent who co-authored Trail of the Octopus -- From Beirut to Lockerbie -- Inside the DIA, got in touch with us and we have collaborated to help him get this fantastic book back into print. Click here to buy it on Amazon, or enjoy reading it online as you always have. Read a special interview with Lester at trailoftheoctopus.net.

American Buddha now has a sister website at NaderLibrary.com that doesn't require a user name or password. While you're there, please join our Bulletin Board and get email notifications whenever new content is posted, which is regularly. Different from the eclectic, find it anywhere style of American Buddha, NaderLibrary is carefully organized into categories on its comprehensive front page, that breaks content into several broad areas, including: Nature Writing / Ecology / Science, Non-Fiction, Philosophy, Political Science, Science Fiction, Graphic Novels and Illustrated Exposes, Plays, Short Stories, Speeches, Articals & Essays, Investigations and Reports, Art, Declassified Documents, Supreme Court Decisions, and Illustrated Screenplays.

American Buddha has also manifested a new self-image. Check out the new Anno Femini front page, with links to large numbers of new titles focused on women's issues. (Hint – click the images to be transported to unexpected wonders.)

Doing research? The Nutch search engine provides you with instant linkage to both sites when you punch in your search terms.

So, come visit, and send your scholarly, studious friends to the most dedicated and selective online library on the Net. Please spread the word about American-buddha.com and NaderLibrary.com -- our dedicated server is fast and eager to provide the fuel for our Intellectual Uprising.

With Lots of Love For Our Fans,

UNSUNG HERO September 5, 2009

By R. taylor

Format: Paperback

This is one of those "can't put it down" reads. Trail of the Octopus is a masterful depiction of how the U.S. government cabal operates in the shadowy world of deceit. It is also an amazingly well documented account of what lengths the spy apparatus is prepared to go to silence anyone who dares raise the alarm. Every human rights advocate should read this book. It puts the abuse exposed in Iraq in perspective by showing what the U.S. did to one of its own, the Author, Lester Coleman.

The reader will fully understand why Libya was blamed for the crash of Pan Am 103, then allowed to re-enter the world society without a blemish. Coleman documents that Libyan Leader, Muammar Gaddafi was a CIA asset who secretly supplied him with 20 tons of plastic explosives and trained terrorists cells throughout the Middle East to blow up airliners.

This book will make everyone who watches the babble at FOX NEWS cringe.

Oh what webs we weave... October 17, 2010

By V-ROD

Format: Paperback

The premise of this book is that there was a DEA sting operation on Pan Am flights from Europe to the U.S. with luggage loaded with heroin from the DEA in an attempt to infiltrate the drug dealers network. The author claims that this operation was infiltrated and luggage with a plastic explosive was placed on the airplane instead. Here we have once again terrorist activity and our own government working in duplicity. Innocent people get killed, and government brass get a slap on the wrist or usually get promoted.

Also in this book is more details on the Iran/Contra affair and the drug running that was being done which affirms the truth in Gary Webb's book. This book confirms the drug running and money laundering that is essential to the economy of other nations including our own. Also there is a link to the PROMIS software scandal that Danny Casolaro was investigating; which ended up costing him his life. I'm sure many people will like this book, but for me these scandals keep repeating and it is downright depressing. The CIA, DIA, DEA, FBI, are supposed to be working for us, but they are more often than not the enemy within.

AMERICAN BUDDHA ONLINE LIBRARY

What is The American Buddha Online Library?

In year 2000, American Buddha, an Oregon religious nonprofit corporation, established the American Buddha Online Library (ABOL) archive. ABOL seeks to make available selected artistic and literary works under a system of voluntary, free online lending, under the fair use exclusion from copyright liability accorded to libraries and archives pursuant to 17 U.S.C. Section 108. ABOL educates members as to the meaning of lawful fair use of copyrighted materials, and imposes contractual and technical limitations on access to the archive. Piratical use of ABOL content is strictly forbidden, as is the use of mass-downloaders, abusive software, or other predatory Net antics.

For years ABOL asked only that users send an email saying they wanted to join, but better security is now required, and so even you old "JOINers" must join up again. The membership process takes three steps. First, enter a user name and password. Second, read the ABOL Membership Agreement. Third, click "I AGREE" to get access to the content that originally brought you here, and the rest of the ABOL archives.

All of the categories below must be completed to process your application. You can use your full first name if you want, but first initial is sufficient. We may use country and postal code information to confirm that you are not using a proxy server to access the site.

ABOL LIBRARY USE AND ANTI-PIRACY AGREEMENT

The ABOL Online Library User and Anti-Piracy Agreement conditions access to the archives on compliance with fair use limitations and other reasonable conditions of use, and permits revocation of access for noncompliance.

Notice to ABOL Users (37 C.F.R. 201.14)

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction.

One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Online Library Use and Anti-Piracy Agreement

1. I have requested access to the ABOL archive, which I understand contains creative works that may be copyright-protected;
2. I have read the Notice required by 37 C.F.R. 201.14 above;
3. I agree to use the creative work in compliance with the following requirements:
 - a. I have provided true current information in the above form. I understand that all my information will be kept confidential and be used exclusively for official communications concerning ABOL membership, and that it will never be sold, leased or licensed to spammers, marketers, or anyone, under any circumstances.
 - b. I will use the creative work only for private study, scholarship, or research, and understand that I may be liable for copyright infringement if I exceed those uses.

c. I will not engage in any acts of intellectual property piracy with the creative work, and agree to hold ABOL and American Buddha harmless from all liability and costs of defense of any action resulting from a breach of this provision.

d. I will not attempt to download more than one media file at a time, nor will I access the archive or any material to which I gain access through ABOL using mass downloaders or other systems that utilize excess bandwidth or system resources, for any purpose.

e. I will not submit the creative work or related matter as evidence in any legal proceeding.

f. I consent to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon for the resolution of any disputes concerning my use of the creative work.

g. By clicking "I AGREE" below, I show my consent as I would by signing a paper contract, and waive any objection that this agreement is not in writing.

I do not agree
